

Welcome Diana!

Introducing our new team member, Diana Gunstone. Diana takes on the role of program and volunteer coordinator.

Growing up as a middle child in a family of seven on the south shore of Montreal, Diana learned her project management and collaboration skills early as the “family organizer”.

After graduating from the University of Carleton with a Bachelor of Commerce, she worked in corporate healthcare marketing and project management for the first half of her career.

Following a career move to BC, Diana settled in Squamish where she has been busy being a mom and building volunteer programs and supporting local community no-profit organizations with projects and program coordination.

We are delighted to have Diana join the team where she will be collaborating with community partners and healthcare professional in a meaningful way to support residents and families on their journey at end of life.
